

"REDS" WORKING TO CONTROL TRADE UNIONS IN THE U. S.

Attorney General Says They Are Meeting With Much
Success in Efforts.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The movement launched by the Third or Communist Internationale at Moscow to gain control of the trade and industrial unions throughout the world is meeting with marked success in so far as it relates to syndicalist unions in the United States, says the first annual report to-day of Attorney General Dougherty. Communist parties in this country, he says, have united to more effectively carry on propaganda, and the policy is to endeavor to gain control of the labor organizations through the control of the Executive Committees or other governing bodies therein.

"Many of the leaders of the movement are American citizens," he says, "though they are subject to orders from Moscow as to their action and activities in the United States." He adds that there has been a noticeable effort "upon the part of various so-called defense societies to propagate and carry on agitation in behalf of the ultra-radicals in the United States."

"Inconspicuous individuals in the ultra-radical movement apprehended locally," he asserts, "are martyred and propaganda started in their behalf not only within the United States but throughout the entire world. In many instances the so-called defense organizations are found to be merely a camouflage for such movements as the United Communist Party, which must conduct its activities underground."

Foreign propagandists still are flocking to the United States, according to the report, which notes that 457 of them arrived in the last fiscal year. The movements, the nature and the extent of the activities of these individuals have been carefully observed, it is stated, and the Government has been kept "intimately informed, but it is impossible to accurately estimate the vast amount of money spent in the United States by the foreign agents engaged in exploiting the American people and in creating interest in a support for movements and schemes entirely foreign to the interests of the American people."

The Attorney General calls attention to the fact that while the department ceased last January its activities in the enforcement of Prohibition it is continuing to co-operate in this work. He observes that "there has been no decrease in the number of illicit distilling cases since the enactment of the Prohibition laws," and that the court calendars in some jurisdictions have been overtaxed by this class of cases.

Among his specific recommendations, the Attorney General asks for enactment of legislation:

Authorizing the appointment of two Federal Judges at Large for each of the nine judicial districts in order to assist in clearing the congested court dockets.

Making it a criminal offense to send through the mails letters threatening injury to life or property.

Authorizing the presence of stenographers in Grand Jury rooms.

Making it a crime for a single individual to defraud or attempt to defraud the Federal Government in any manner, as the law now provides for the punishment of "two or more persons who conspire to defraud."

Making criminal an attempt to commit a crime against the United States.

Limiting the compensation to be received by referees in bankruptcy.

JAZZ GIRL IS GOING,
MODESTY RETURNING,
SAYS ELINOR GLYN

(Continued from Third Page.)

marked. "But in the long run no girl is so successful with men as the one who keeps a certain mystery about herself, a little reserve."

"You say that this girl is 'coming back,' overseas," I said. "How can we hasten her return in this country?"

"Women," she replied, "always have had control of manners. Let them exercise it now. Let the girls, the nicest girls, in every community, agree that they will not know young men who come intoxicated to dances or girls whose behavior lapses from the standards set by good taste. Let the older women, the hostesses, censor their invitation list. Let them refuse to invite to the next party the persons who misbehaved at the last one. In an English ballroom, where nice people go, such dancing as the so-called cheek-to-cheek or the shimmy would not be tolerated for one moment."

BOBBED HAIR RIDICULOUS IN WOMAN OF FORTY.

"There is an old line in Punch, the comment of a woman who says: 'It's worse than wicked—it's vulgar.' That is my feeling about so many of the things done to-day. If you throw your bread at a young man who sits opposite to you at a dinner party, you are committing not a breach of ethics, but a breach of good manners. Bobbed hair, extremely short skirts, cigarettes—these are all matters to be governed by good taste. Bobbed hair may be very charming on a young girl; it seems to me ridiculous on a woman of forty. Short skirts—oh, but they're out! No one in Paris wears them any more. As for cigarettes, if a woman wants to smoke one or two, now and then, I don't object. But they are a drug—why take a drug to excess?"

Mrs. Glyn supported her cheek between bent forefinger and thumb. "Through their letting down of all restrictions, parents are chiefly responsible for the lack of restraint shown by some girls," she said, thoughtfully. "In extreme youth a girl must be guarded and guided, trained to discipline herself. It is this lack of self-discipline which is so conspicuous to-day. Unless it is reacquired, I pity the race."

"But it will be," she finished, with a hopeful smile. "Nature will take care of that. Something will pull us up short. In England we have taken the turn back toward normal, and I have nothing but hope that, during this visit, I shall find a similar state of affairs here."

"I am not a Victorian, in any sense. I don't believe in extremes. When they serve me roast beef raw, and I send it back, I don't like it any better if it is returned to me done to a crisp. So I don't want the girl of to-morrow to be an ultra-conservative, ultra-repressed creature. I want her to be—I believe she will be—between those two extremes, the girl of yesterday and the girl of to-day; a sort of 'roast beef medium.'"

DYING BURGLAR BREAKS INTO CONVENT

He and Companion Dead After Mysterious Shooting Up State.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Two unidentified men, believed by the police to have been car burglars, were shot dead here to-day. Whether they were killed by railroad detectives guarding freight trains or met death in a pistol fight between themselves, the police have not been able to determine.

In the pocket of one of the men was found a bunch of skeleton keys. A package of woman's kid gloves was picked up near the body of the second man.

One of the men, apparently seeking treatment for his wounds, broke through a window at St. Mary's Convent. He died while the police were transferring him to a hospital. A short time later the body of the other man was found beside the New York Central Railroad tracks.

TRIAL OF MRS. RAGONE AGAIN POSTPONED.

The trial of Mrs. Josephine Ragone for the murder of her lover, Frank Lucalano, was against adjourned to-day in the Court of General Sessions because of the continued illness of Juror No. 6, Joseph Schrier, No. 45 East 82d Street. If he is not able to resume his place next Wednesday a substitute juror will be installed, the testimony will be read to him and the trial continued.

BLAIR SIFTS BRIBERY CASE.

Pittsburgh Man Charged With
Offering $2,000 to Agent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Commissioner Blair of the Internal Revenue Bureau has ordered an investigation to determine whether others are involved in an alleged attempt to bribe an agent of the bureau, with which Louis Schwartz of Pittsburgh, connected with the Western Pennsylvania Amusement Company, is charged.

Schwartz is alleged to have offered John W. Myles, an agent, $2,000 in consideration for which Myles was to approve his individual income tax return and that of his brother Maurice.

New York buys its furs at

JACKMAN'S

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS — SAVE HUMAN LIVES

Best & Co.
Fifth Avenue, at 35th Street—N. Y.

The Store of Useful Gifts

THE GIFTS SUGGESTED HERE ARE SPECIALLY PRICED FRIDAY

Tuxedo Sweaters

5.95

Pure zephyr sweaters in tuxedo style, with pockets and tie belt. In black, navy, brown and white.

Main Floor

THE simplest, most effective rule for Christmas giving, is "Give Them Something They Will Use — and LIKE to Use!" Here's a page of gifts that will make it an easy and delightful rule to follow.

Bandeaux
2.50 and up

Glistening leaves of gold or silver fashion these very becoming ornaments for evening wear. Paris approves them, and so will you!

Main Floor

Little Girls' French
Handmade Dresses
4.50 - 6.95

Hand-made dresses in mousseline, in coral, mauve, rose natter, blue. Sizes 4, 5, 6 years. . . . 4.50

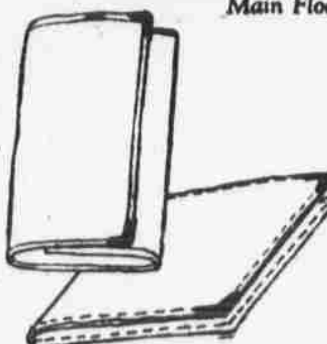

Hand-made dresses of white dotted Swiss or dimity, hand-embroidered in white or colors. Sizes 4 to 8 years. 6.95. . . . Second Floor

Imported
Scarf
and Cap
Sets - 3.95

If she's athletically inclined, (or only likes to look that way), this set of cap and scarf is sure to please. Imported, of soft wool, and in a wonderful assortment of colors.

Main Floor

Leather Wallets
with Gold Corners
3.50

Pin seal wallets, square (two-fold) or oblong (three fold), with gold corners. Quite good-looking, they are, and a most satisfactory answer to the "What-to-give-Him" question. . . . Main Floor

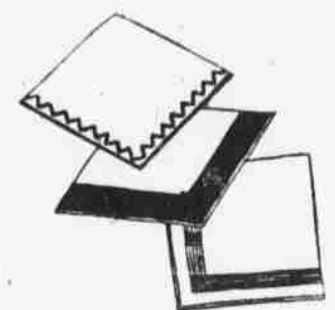

Glove Silk Vests
1.75

A good firm quality of silk, in bodice top style. In flesh only. . . . Second Floor

Crepe de Chine
Breakfast Coat
14.10
(Tax included)

Wee silken flowers, pleated ruffles, and a becoming shawl collar are details you'll especially like, about this dainty breakfast coat of crepe de Chine. In rose, peach, orchid, copenhagen, and light blue. . . . Second Floor

Paris Colored
Linen Hd'ks
50c

The smartest 'kerchief is a colored one... so says Paris. . . . and sends us these, hand-hemmed, of dainty linens, in gay, futuristic patterns, or with an effective band of color. . . . Main Floor

Ostrich Feather
Fans . . . 6.50

Single plume fans, in shades that smartly contrast, or as smartly harmonize with the tones of her evening frock. . . . Main Floor

Oil-Silk Raincoats
19.50

Just to show that a raincoat may be smartly cut, very becoming, and still be a raincoat! These oil-silk coats come in Women's and Misses' sizes, and in various attractive shades. . . . Second Floor Third Floor

OPPENHEIM, COLLINS & Co

34th Street—New York

Special—Friday

500 Girls' Dresses

Greatly Reduced

150 Girls' Dresses

Serge and Jersey, some with white kid collar and cuffs. Others embroidered. Sizes 6 to 14 Years.

Values to 12.75

5.90

150 Girls' Dresses

One and two-piece models of Serge, Jersey and combinations of Wool Crepe and Crepe de Chine. Sizes 8-16 Yrs.

Values to 15.00

8.90

200 Girls' Dresses

Velvet and Serge models, embroidered Suspender Dresses of Serge and Crepe de Chine. Sizes 6 to 16 Years.

Values to 25.00

11.75

No Competition With Any Other Establishment in the World

WORTH

THIRTY FOURTH STREET

Clearing them away at Sale price
Clear below wholesale cost

WOMEN'S and MISSES' CLOTH and SILK FROCKS—REDUCED

Poirot Twills—Canton Crepes—
Crepe Satins—Velveteens—all brought down to one Sale price

17.50

What they were formerly marked
What they cost us—that's another story. Here they are at 17.50.

Color Contrast Proves them of the New Winter Modes

A duvetyne vestee, a leather binding, a brocade piping, a colorfully faced Sash—and some to the infinity of smartness

Misses' Frocks—Seventh Floor

Necklines and Sleeves
Graciously Expressed

Both, more often wide than otherwise. Waist-lines too, assume the low estate that Fashion finds most to her liking.

Women's Frocks—Sixth Floor

McCutcheon's Exquisite Neckwear of Real Lace

A CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION —
Every woman loves Real Laces—no gift could please her more than a piece of Lace Neckwear from "The Linen Store"

Collars
Collar and Cuff Sets in

Duchesse, Rosaline, Venise
Carrick-ma-Cross
Limerick and Irish Point

Very Special

Duchesse and Point Collars at $10.50 each

Other Real Lace Collars
$15.00 to $50.00 each

Of Real Filet

Collars at $1.50 each—Sets at $2.25 each

Embroidered Neckwear

50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $3.75 to $7.50

Try Shopping before 11 a. m.
It's ever so much pleasanter

Fifth Avenue

34th and 33d
Streets

It Makes Little Difference What You Need—

A World "Want" Ad. Will Go and Find It